

J. S. CAMPBELL FOR Mayor-Commissioner

Who's Campbell?

He was born in the heart of Salt Lake City in 1866.

In his boyhood days, he moved to Logan and followed the Mercantile Business there, until 1907.

At this time he organized the J. S. Campbell Company and moved to Ogden, centering all his interests here.

His life's record is an open book.

He believes in being BROAD, PRACTICAL, AND CONSISTENT in RELIGION, in POLITICS, in BUSINESS and in POLICIES.

"FAIR PLAY" TO ALL.

He now asks you to vote for him for MAYOR COMMISSIONER on a non-partisan platform.

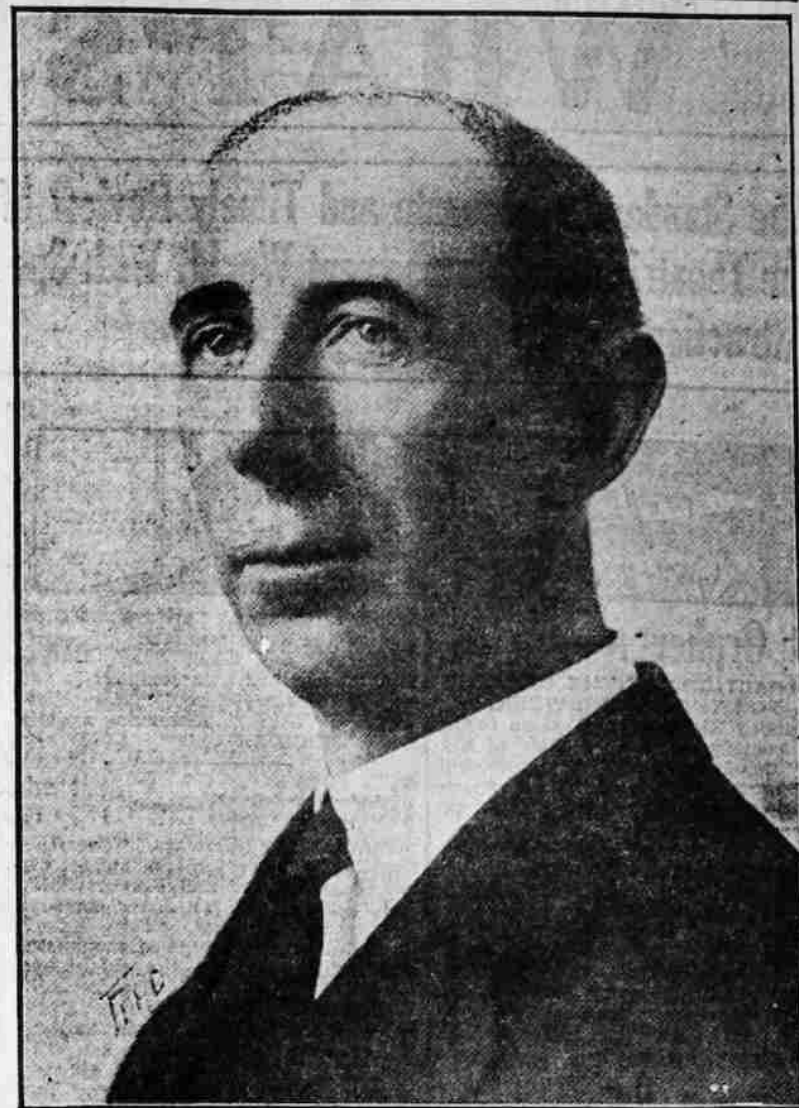

He solicits your vote irrespective of Religion or National Politics.

He appeals to you as an AMERICAN CITIZEN.

Campbell insists on clean politics.

He wants a clean campaign.

Will you help him make it so?

SOCIETY

CANADA'S GRAND.
Ottawa, Ont., Oct. 30.—Sir Charles Tupper, venerable Canadian statesman, died in England today. He was 94 years old.

From the establishment of the Dominion of Canada in 1867, in which he played a prominent part, up to within a few years ago, Sir Charles Tupper was so prominent in Canadian statesmanship that upon his retirement he, like the late Lord Strathcona, was called "Canada's Grand Old Man."

Born in Nova Scotia.

Born at Amherst, Nova Scotia, July 2, 1821, he studied medicine at Edinburgh university, and attained success in the profession in his native Nova Scotia where he entered politics in 1855 by winning a seat in the Nova Scotia parliament as a conservative. He defeated Joseph Howe, leader of the Nova Scotia liberals.

Young Tupper made himself a power in parliament, and became premier of Nova Scotia in 1864. After the formation of the confederation he became minister of customs in the Sir John Macdonald cabinet that resigned in 1873, and was Sir John's closest adviser in the five years during which the conservative party was out of power. In 1878, when Macdonald returned to office, Dr. Tupper became minister of public works. He created the department of railways and ca-mony the bride and groom departed for Salt Lake City to spend a short honeymoon. This evening an elaborate reception will be tendered them at the home of the groom's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Dan R. Davis, Sr., 429 West Twenty-first street, and to which over 130 guests have been bidden.

Both young people are popular members of Ogden's social set and their many friends extend congratulations and best wishes for a happy and prosperous future. The bride is the daughter of Mrs. H. T. Hawkins of Lincoln avenue and Thirty-fifth street and since the announcement of her Belnap also gave short talks on the life of Mr. and Mrs. Stanford. Mrs. Weltha Marriott sang "Abide With Me," and also played several piano selections. Mrs. Evelyn West gave a sketch of the life of Mrs. Lydia Farley and the hostess served luncheon, assisted by her daughter-in-law, Mrs. A. C. West. Two new members were present at this meeting.

Mrs. Myrtle Heywood, 3060 Adams avenue, entertained Company L members. A review of the life of Phil Davenport was given by Mrs. Heywood and Miss Lillian Johnson sang "I Wonder How the Old Folks Are At Home." Cal McCune gave a reading, "Whistling in Heaven." A social hour was enjoyed and Mrs. Heywood served refreshments.

BASKETBALL TEAM ORGANIZED.
Fourteen members of the Honor Club of Religion Class Boys of the Fourth ward met Monday evening at the home of Mrs. Thomas H. Reeder and organized a basketball team. The officers elected were:

Haynes Stratford, captain; William Silverthorn, manager; Roscoe Reeder, coach.

Games were played and a few chapters of a delightful story read, and the boys were treated to an old-fashioned molasses candy pull. A very enjoyable evening was passed, and the boys were all enthused with the work outlined for the winter.

PRESBYTERIAN YOUNG PEOPLE'S SOCIETY.

A Halloween party that was exceptional in point of excellence and in the number who attended was given Thursday evening by the young people's society of the First Presbyterian church. Elaborate electrical and mechanical devices were arranged to convey vividly the spirit of the day. Halloween games and refreshments were enjoyed. All the guests wore costumes in keeping with the day.

ENTERTAINS FRIENDS.
Members of the Caledonian society were entertained by Mr. and Mrs. Lorin Somerville last evening at a Halloween party. Games, dancing and musical selections were enjoyed during the evening and refreshments were served by the hostess.

Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames P. Purdie, R. Purdie, R. I. Moyes, J. Moyes, W. Purdie, L. Somerville, J. Wilson, M. Somerville, A. Liddel, A. Gilchrist, Pear, Menzies, F. R. Cleve, W. Kenley, Bain, Williamson, Jack, Mr. Robert Peart, Mrs. Dr. Alice Ridge and the Misses Liddel, Peart and Brown.

MARRIED ON WEDNESDAY.
John Joseph Hill of Brooklyn, N. Y., and Miss Myrtle B. Olsen motored up from Salt Lake Wednesday of this week and were married by Rev. J. E. Carver. Miss Caroline Francis and Henry A. Bradley accompanied them.

Mr. Hill is a wholesale furniture dealer in Brooklyn and met Miss Olsen while on a recent business tour of the west.

SUPPER AND MUSICAL.

The First Presbyterian church was elaborately and tastefully decorated for the supper on Tuesday night. The Halloween idea in decorating was carried out most prettily. Musical selections were furnished during the supper hour by Mrs. Post and Mrs. Rylands. After the supper hour Charles Kent gave a musical hour. Mrs. Stephen Hagans was the chairman of the evening. Mrs. Gertrude Biddle Bjorques accompanied Mr. Kent at the piano.

HOME PARTY.

Last evening, at their home at 555 Twenty-seventh street, Mr. and Mrs. Frank A. Rose entertained a number of their friends, the evening being spent in games and music. Luncheon was served. Those present were: Messrs. and Mesdames M. Bailey of Salt Lake; E. C. Olsen, Lee Madsen, Arthur Shreeves, H. B. Ames, F. A. Denney, E. X. Weekly and the Misses Olive Browning and Grace Wood.

EXCELLENT MUSICAL PROGRAM.
During the reception to Miss Mabel Tallafiero at the Maids and Matrons club Monday, Miss Lillian Thatcher Ogden's well-known violinist and her orchestra gave a program of unusual merit. The selections rendered were:

Valse Petite Bijouterie.....C. Bohm
Three Songs from Elland.....A. Von Fielitz
Temple Dance from (Olaf Trygvason).....Ed. Grieg
Love Thee.....Ed. Grieg

nals, and became its first minister. In this post he carried out the policy of the government for enlargement of the Welland canal, deepening of the St. Lawrence river, improvement of the Intercolonial railway and construction by a private company of the Canadian Pacific railway.

Serves in London.
He retired from the ministry in 1884 and went to London as Canada's highest commissioner. In 1887 he was recalled, to be minister of finance in Macdonald's new cabinet, but resigned next year and resumed his duties in London. In January, 1896 he entered the Sir Mackenzie Bowell administration as secretary of state and leader in the house of commons, and on the retirement of Bowell four months afterward he succeeded him as prime minister.

After the defeat of the conservatives in June, 1896, Dr. Tupper resigned office and upon the meeting of the new parliament he was elected leader of the opposition. A few years later he retired to private life. Several years ago he went to London, intending to spend his remaining years there. His leave-taking was made the occasion of a great popular demonstration in Vancouver. Dr. Tupper was created a baronet in 1879. He was at one time president of the Canadian Medical association.

POPULAR OGDEN COUPLE WEDDED.

A wedding of interest to a large number of Ogdenites occurred Wednesday at high noon when Miss Bertha S. Carter became the bride of Dan R. Davis, Jr., the ceremony being performed by Rev. John Edward Carver at his residence. Only members of the immediate families were present. Following the nuptial cereengagement has been the inspiration for a number of delightful entertainments. Mr. Davis is well known both socially and in a business way. He is an employee of the George A. Lowe Hardware company.

The happy couple have a lovely new home at Adams avenue and Thirty-sixth street and will be ready to receive their friends after November 1.

ENTERTAINED AT LUNCHEON.

Mrs. William McBratney, 2929 Lincoln avenue, entertained at luncheon Friday afternoon in compliment to her niece, Mrs. Chester A. Wyman of Pasadena, Cal., who, with her little daughter Daphne, has been visiting at the home of Mrs. McBratney for the past ten days. Yesterday ten guests were entertained in her honor.

DAUGHTERS OF PIONEERS.

Company G of the Daughters of Pioneers held a pleasant meeting with Mrs. Leah Cunningham at Madison avenue Thursday afternoon, when Mrs. Colleen Evans gave a sketch of the life of her grandfather, Joseph White. Mrs. Mary Heller who is now 77 years of age delighted those present with a reading of the pioneer life of Willard Woodruff. Miss Bertha Wheelwright gave a reading, "Four Bars in the Key of G" and Mrs. Billings who was an out-of-town guest, told of her life in Utah in the early days. Later a social hour was enjoyed and refreshments served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Herbert Seager.

Company K members were the guests of Mrs. Evelyn West, Mrs. H. H. Goddard gave a sketch of the life of her father and mother, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Stanford, which was thoroughly enjoyed by the company members. Mesdames Reeder and Sarah

JANITORS OF COUNTY ARE HOLDING A MEETING

At the court house this afternoon the first Janitors Institute for Weber county is being held, those in attendance being 19 janitors of the county schools. It is expected to continue the Institute meetings with the view of improving janitorial regulations in all the schools of the county. The topics to be discussed this afternoon will embrace light, heat, ventilation, general sanitary regulations and the handling of steam heating apparatus.

Dr. Robinson, county physician, is in attendance, and he will talk to the janitors on the question of health regulations for the schools, prevention of germ accumulations, and other matters pertinent to janitorial work.

The proper handling of steam plants will be taken up by a member of the plumbing firm of Halverson Brothers, County Superintendent of Schools W. N. Petterson, will talk on the advantages of the Institute and other matters relating to the cleanliness of schools and school grounds, and one of the janitors will discuss the work at the schools from a janitor's point of view.

FIRE DESTROYS BIDDEFORD MILLS

Biddeford, Me., Oct. 30.—A loss estimated at approximately $250,000 was caused by fire which swept through half of the large storehouse of the Pepperell Manufacturing company early today, destroying several thousand bales of raw cotton and much of the finished product.

One fireman was badly hurt by falling from a ladder.

Sausage for Breakfast

certainly is appetizing these crisp days; it certainly is satisfying and good—if you secure the famous MOUNTAIN BRAND—

MOUNTAIN BRAND Sausage is made under the inspection of the federal government. It is an absolutely pure food product, made from western grain-fed pork.

MOUNTAIN BRAND Ham and Bacon are also excellent breakfast dishes. They are tasty, savory and delicious meats.

Enamel Ware THAT WEARS

We handle the famous Austrian Elite enamel ware, that is the very best by every test. Of course, we have some other lines of enamel ware that are cheaper, but none that we can recommend more highly, for there is not one better grade.

Some of the prices: Tea kettles, $2.00 to $3.00; double boilers, $1.75 to $2.25; tea pots, $1.25 and $1.50; coffee pots, $1.25 to $1.75; kettles, 1.50 to $3.00; dish pans, preserving kettles, sauce pans, milk pans and other cooking utensils.

TOYLAND—In the basement, is a wonder place for both children and grown-ups. You will find a splendid line from which to make early holiday selections—or for that gift of the present day.
